COMPUTER STUDIES
PAPER 2
MARKING SCHEME

1 a) (Award 20mks)

The corporate world has its own range of stress designed to play havoc with the psyche of an employee coping with ambiguous instructions, difficulties in coordination amongst various department, communication gaps, alienation and the constant conflicts that occurs between the employee's and the corporate norms or objectives are just a few of these. Many employees, with creative potential, exhibit a total lack of motivation and resign themselves to a boring routine, because of external compulsion. As they enter the corporate scene, many compromise their creative needs. They are compelled to hide their true selves-behind their corporate masks and follow the script written by their seniors and bosses. Stress is created in the mind and this is where all attention is to be focused. Stress is not everybody'
